

A Look Back on the past 1/2 year-Photo Edition

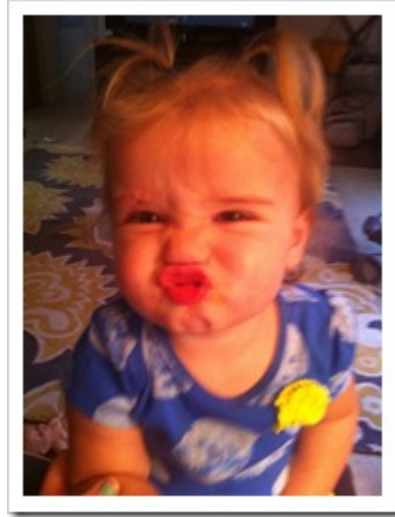

To celebrate my babies being a year and a half, I would like to share some fun moments caught thru photos! After all, this is my "life diary" and I want to remember every.single.moment. Who doesn't love a post full of photos? I know I do!

And those are just a few;) I didn't want to completely overload you in pictures! I love you Jocelynn and JP! Happy half birthday to my sweet babies!
