

Cheeseburger Soup

I posted a picture of the Cheeseburger soup I cooked last night on Instagram and it was a hit. I had a lot of requests asking for the recipe so I figured I would share it here as well! I have to say it was delicious!! Even the children approved and it helped us get warm on these chilly nights we've been having!

I did do a couple of things different from the actual recipe called for. I used canned potatoes and carrots instead of fresh because I didn't have any on hand. The husband isn't a huge celery fan and I did not have any of that either so I stirred in a can of cream of celery instead which made it so yum!! One of my favorite soups I have cooked in a while and so easy! Hope y'all enjoy as much as we did!
