

Say HEY to Jennifer from Life in the Green House.

I should probably start this post out with an introduction. That's the polite thing to do, no? My name is Jennifer and I blog at Life In The Green House. Keep in mind, we're Green by name and not by nature. You won't find any cloth diapering post in my archives, sorry to disappoint. What I do blog about is a little mix of everything going on in our home, sometimes I pour my heart out and sometimes I blog about lasagna. There is no rhyme or reason, just whatever my heart is feeling that day. Or sometimes, it's more like what I have time for that day.

I teach kindergarten by day, and in the afternoons I get to spend my times with two of my favorite people, my husband, Allen and my three-year-old, Braylen. And when I have a bit of spare time, I write a few blog posts. It's a busy life we live, but it's ours and we love it. And did I mention that I actually know Jenn and her crew in real life? That's right! We're more than just blog friends, our husbands were friends and we met because they were kind of inseparable. When Jenn asked me to share something with you guys, I was stumped for about 2 seconds, until I remembered that one of my favorite seasons is on the horizon. That's right, fall is coming. And I am incredibly cliché and a lover of all things fall. Pumpkin-Spiced Lattes, Pumpkin bread, Pumpkin pie, gimme all the pumpkin. I'll take it. Coming in a close second to all things pumpkin is fall fashion. Boots and sweaters and leggings, oh my! I'll take it all. Every single bit of fabulous fall fashion I can find. So what better way to welcome the best season than with a list of my favorite fall things, things that really need to make their way into that closet of mine.

What exactly is on my fall wish list? In no particular order, here are my top five picks for fall:

1. A foil dot sweater, big and comfy.
2. J.Crew Excursion vest.
3. 7 for all Mankind black skinnies
4. J.Crew perfect gingham shirt
5. Frye boots in this fabulous color

Now you tell me, what's on your fall wishlist? What things would make your fall a little sweeter?
